

Colmar Manor Wins Annual Cage Tourney

The second annual Greenbelt Invitational Basketball Tourney was won by the Colmar Manor American Legion team last Wednesday night at the Community Gym when they defeated the Arena Sport Shop quintet by an 88 to 60 score. Colmar Manor, composed of this year's championship Tech H. S. team, and bolstered by the addition of former high school stars, out-drove and out-ran the more experienced Arena Sport Shop team. This year's Tourney Champs almost were knocked out of the tourney in the quarter-final round when they barely defeated the College Park Merchant team, 78 to 76.

In Wednesday night's preliminary game, Snug Harbor defeated the Silver Hill Sand & Gravel team 51 to 38 to nail down third place.

Johnny Moffatt of Arena Sport Shop and George Marshall of the Colmar Manor club received trophies as the two outstanding players of the tourney. Gene Shue, Dick Koffenberger, Stan Kernan, Tony Sgro, and Scotty Cranston were also named to the First All-Tournament team, and received gold basketball charms. Silver basketball charms were given to the following, who were named to the second All-Tourney team; Bob Foster, Ralph Grecco, Don Hillock, Garry LeCompte, and Bobby Reese.

County ARC Leads Area In Fund Drive

Prince Georges County leads all of Metropolitan Washington in percentage results of the Red Cross Fund Raising Drive with a record breaking 118 percent of its quota. Greenbelt contributed a total of $336.39 to the 1952 Red Cross drive for funds, or 40.2% of its quota of $825.

Called upon to raise $4,800 more than last year, Chairman Leland G. Worthington, sharing honors with his chairmen and volunteer workers, said in his final report: "It was a wonderful day for your county . . . Your unselfish efforts and sacrifices and your tenacity of purpose magnificently established the fact that the people of our county are as charitable and kind hearted as any in the world. I am proud to have had the privilege to serve as your County Chairman. The excellent cooperation and friendly relationship that has existed between us from the beginning has been most pleasant."

He also pointed out that it has been estimated that 18,000 families will be affected by the current Missouri river flood.

ANNUAL MENS BANQUET

Now is the time for all good men to get together again and enjoy a wonderful fried chicken dinner. See and enjoy some good entertainment and hear a good speaker this coming Wednesday night, April 23, at 6:30 p.m., in the social room of the Community Church.

Tickets may be obtained from any of the following people, or bought at the door: Rev. Braund, Earl Thomas, Bruce Bowman, Charles McDonald, Sam Ashelman, Ed Burgoon, Harry Zubkoff, Buddy Attick, Dr. McCarl, Tom Freeman, Bob Lindeman, Ben Rosenzweig.

Lecture on Meat Is At Theatre Tuesday

Over 100 Door Prizes Will Be Given Away

"Careless purchasing of meat can mean gambling with your food dollar." This and other facts about federal meat grades, meat selections and cooking of the more economical cuts will be discussed fully in the coming lecture by Miss Kay Nawn, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, on Thursday, April 24th at the Greenbelt Theatre, Greenbelt, Maryland. The lecture, sponsored by the Greenbelt Consumer Services, Inc. will be from 3 p.m. to 4:15 p.m. and is open to the public. Over 100 door prizes will be given away.

Miss Nawn, well known meat specialist has lectured extensively throughout most of the 48 states before audiences of 200-600 people. Choosing as her subject, "When it is your turn at the meat counter," she will speak on problems common to all shoppers such as which cut to fit the family budget, appearance in judging meat quality, and best uses for each of the federal grades, "choice," "commercial" and "good."

To illustrate her points, Miss Nawn will project on a screen 27 full color lantern slides. Her lecture will be followed by a brief question and answer session.

Free tickets will be available Thursday, the day of the lecture in the lobby of the Greenbelt theatre. They may also be obtained during store hours this week and next at the meat counter of the Greenbelt Co-op Supermarket. In addition tickets will be enclosed with each meat package purchased at the meat counter. Numbered on the back, the tickets will be used for the drawing of over 100 door prizes ranging from bacon, to hams and turkeys.

SOS RESCUE SQUAD STARTS MAY FIRST

By I. J. Parker

The Greenbelt Volunteer Rescue Squad will begin its annual membership drive on May 1. A minimum of $2 a year per family is required to join the "Ambulance Club." Block captains will canvass homes beginning May 19, it was announced by Marshall Zoellner, rescue squad chief.

Twenty-four hour service is provided by the Rescue Squad and trips are made in a 30-mile radius of Greenbelt. There are now 40 squad members; 18 hold "advanced" first aid cards, 4 have "instructor" cards, and the remainder have standard first aid cards issued by the American Red Cross.

Among the cases handled in Greenbelt the past year were: a child swallowing a straight pin; a woman hemorrhaging; a child scalded severely; a child struck by an automobile; a child with double pneumonia in need of oxygen during the entire trip to the hospital; a child drinking pure alcohol, another drinking floor cleaner; a serious auto accident with 3 passengers hurt and one pinned inside the car; and one baby, born in the ambulance. About 15 calls a month are received by the rescue squad, all emergency trips.

Money is now needed to purchase an additional ambulance. A 1952 Pontiac ambulance has been ordered at a cost of $4651. Another $700 will be needed to equip it.

The Rescue Squad has been operating in Greenbelt for the past five years. In addition to Chief Zoellner, other officers include Wilbur Kluth, assistant chief; James See RESCUE SQUAD, Page 2

GVHC Office Hours

The Greenbelt Veterans Housing Corporation's office, at 40-A Crescent, has been open from 9 to 5 during the day, and 7 to 10 in the evening, during its first week of operation. Beginning Monday, April 21, the office will be open from 10 to 3 during the day, and from 7 to 10 in the evening. Saturday hours will continue to be from 9 to 5—no evening hours—and Sunday hours will continue to be from 2 to 6 in the afternoon. This schedule will be effective until Sunday, April 27, at which time it may have to be changed again.

New Trees On Southway Dedicated To Boy Scouts

Maryland Arbor Day was celebrated in Greenbelt Thursday, April 10, by city manager Charles McDonald in a dedication of the new trees being planted around the city to the Scouts of Greenbelt. The Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts and their leaders met at 6:30 p.m. in front of the city office and marched to the newly planted trees near the 9 court of Southway. The procession was led by Joe Davis, Assistant Scout Executive, National Capital Area Council; W. Haward Hunt, Neighborhood Commissioner; McDonald, City Manager; Curtiss Barker, Institutional Representative of Scout Units 202; Jack Swisher, Institutional Representative of Scout Units 229; Cubmaster John Ohlmacher, Pack 202; Scoutmasters Fred Birdseye, Troop 202; and Richard White, Troop 229; Senior Adviser Earnest Townshend, Explorer Post 229; and the Explorer and Sea Scouts.

The ceremonies were opened by Hunt who introduced the city manager. McDonald stated that the planting had been undertaken in cooperation with the State Forestry Department. Seventy-five trees had been planted up to that time and these and any subsequent ones are dedicated to the scouts of Greenbelt, who will help in caring for and in protecting them.

Hunt then introduced Joe Davis, who was with the Maryland State Forestry Department for a number of years before becoming a Scout executive.

Cub Scout Sander Johnson of Pack 229 led the cubs in the cub scout promise and Jerry McDonald, Troop 229, led in the scout oath. The colors were then advanced and the program closed with the pledge of allegiance to the flag led by the neighborhood commissioner.

The service of the sound truck, with officer Buddy Attick in charge, was donated by the city.

Social Service Leader Speaks To North End PTA

Chief speaker at the April 8 meeting of the North End PTA was Miss Erna D. Hernandez, house director of the Girls Service League of New York City.

Emphasizing that true discipline cannot be based on fear alone, Miss Hernandez, who has worked for many years in the two resident homes for disturbed adolescent girls maintained by the League, pointed out how the League attempts to compensate its charges for early deprivations by stimulating ambitions, widening interests and instilling the principle that true discipline is self-discipline.

Miss Peggy Burgess, student at the University of Maryland, presented a brief recital of classical piano selections.

GVHC Votes Residents Quota Of 533; Approves By-Laws, Keeps PR Voting

Only 533 Greenbelt residents must deposit $100 by April 30 to insure the purchase of the community by the Greenbelt Veterans Housing Corporation. The balance of the 800 participating members required by Public Housing Administration may be non-residents. This action was taken at the GVHC membership meeting Monday night.

The vote was close. The first time the motion carried 72 to 63. The second time, with ayes and nays lined up at opposite side of the room, the count was 83 to 71. A motion to place the same question on the agenda of the next meeting was defeated by a large margin.

(As the Cooperator went to press, 161 residents had paid in $100 and signed contracts to purchase with GVHC at the office, 40-A Crescent.)

In considering the by-laws, the Hare system of proportional representation for selecting directors was upheld; the number of board members was raised to nine; and a motion to reduce the quorum was defeated as were several other proposals.

Voting Question

Vice-president Adelbert C. Long moved to require election of directors by plurality vote instead of proportional representation, saying that after defeat of the Hare system at one board meeting, "wheels were set in motion" to get another vote on the matter. Board member Elliott Bukzin took exception to Long's presentation. He explained that only five members had been present at the board meeting when P.R. was defeated by a vote of 3 to 1 and the president had not voted. At the second meeting, the board approved P. R. 6 to 3, he said.

Speaking in support of P. R., Walter R. Volckhausen said that non-residents participating in the purchase should be represented on the board. Following discussion, Long's motion for the plurality system was defeated decisively.

A second motion by Long to reduce the number of board members from seven to five was defeated and a motion by member Sam Schwimmer to raise the number from seven to nine was passed by a vote of 68 to 34. (It was explained that the board's recommendation of seven board members was a compromise between five, proposed by Long, and nine, preferred by others on the board.)

Quorum Vote

A proposal to reduce the quorum failed although its advocate, treasurer Tom Ritchie, reviewed the difficulties of Greenbelt Consumer Services in securing quorums. The members appeared to feel that with a sizable investment involved, there would be little difficulty in securing the quorum of 200 or 10% of the membership, whichever is less.

Matthew Fontaine's motion to require the corporation to select members on the same basis as PHA selects its tenants was defeated unanimously.

Changes regarding the audit and a restriction which would bar a resident CPA from auditing the corporation's books were defeated.

Board Employment

Passed was a ruling that board members may not be employed as general manager or assistant general manager until two years following conclusion of their term of office. A motion barring relatives of board members from employment was tabled.

A paragraph in the by-laws stating that board members' remuneration be determined by the membership was defeated.

Return Of Rufus

(Special from the Police Dept.)

On Monday, April 14, as fine an Irish Setter as you ever did see, became of much concern to the members of the Department of Public Safety. His appearance in the Fire House was not by choice but the efforts of Chief George J. Panagoulis with the assistance of two fine Greenbelt children: Carol Orleans and Billy Edwards. A full size Irish Setter and a thoroughbred, he seemed to be exhausted. Upon close scrutiny it was discovered that he wore a leather collar with the metal disc attached bearing No. 128, and M.C.S. Quantico, Virginia.

Sgt. A. S. Attick contacted the Marine Base at Quantico and learned that tag 128 is assigned to the dog whose name is Rufus and who is owned by Major Harrison.

At 11 p.m. Major Harrison called and was delighted to learn that Rufus was in such good hands. He explained that the dog was left in a kennel at Elkton, Md. last Thursday, when he and his family were enroute to Boston, Massachusetts for their Easter vacation. It was not until Monday afternoon that they learned that Rufus had jumped the fence, and when they arrived at Quantico, our call awaited them.

On Tuesday Major Harrison called for his dog, who showed real excitement at the mention of "Mike," the Major's 8 year old son, who had been heartbroken at the loss of his Rufus.

The two young Greenbelt rescuers were also made happy, they had an ice cream reward to eat.

Invitation to "the Bowlers"

Second practice for the Little League, Mr. Ewing's Bowlers, has been announced for Saturday, April 19 at 10 a.m. at the softball field behind the swimming pool.

All those who have been notified that they are members of The Bowlers are requested to attend; all positions are open.

"Little" Men - Big Issue

It seems incredible that at this late date, only two weeks from the deadline, there is still a small but militant element in our community who question the motives of the Board of the Housing group. These "little" men seem to be doing their best—or their worst—to frustrate the sale of Greenbelt. Who, they ask, will get all the profits from the undeveloped land? Why, they ask, should we be the suckers who line the pockets of the Board? What, they ask, is the sense of having a cooperative housing group? Where, they ask, is all the gravy going? And so forth and so on, ad infinitum.

This kind of thinking leads nowhere. It is time we recognized that the Board is a group of individuals—whom we elected—and whom we can replace by due democratic process. They are doing a thankless job in the public interest, and they are doing it admirably. They are working long and hard with no compensation to themselves and in the face of intolerable heckling. They have accomplished much, and the results are creditable. But, most important of all, they have submitted their actions to the membership for public scrutiny, discussion and approval. It is the membership which makes the final decisions. This fact alone should repudiate the suspicions and fears which the "little" men are nurturing and fostering. And in this democratic process lies the real strength of GVHC.

Letters To The Editor

I have lived in Greenbelt for 15 years and have loved it—I hate to see it sold, however. I cannot see why it couldn't be sold to some corporation rather than individually and still be a wonderful place to live. The burden of taxes, upkeep, down payments etc. would be placed on someone else's shoulders far more capable financially than the majority of tenants.

I am now living in a defense home, I know that most of these dwellings are infested with termites, floors are warped, ceilings are separating from mwalls, floors in kitchens and baths need covering, trim needs paint, plumbing in half do not have copper pipes and are very bad, and even one apartment has been jacked up. Isn't it the tremendous upkeep on these defense homes the reason that the government is being forced to sell? Why then is buying a defense home under a 25 year contract such a good investment? I believe these dwellings have already seen their day as temporary 10 year homes. What happens if the house starts falling down around my ears in 5 years—who will pay off the balance?

I believe GVHC has gone into this a little too fast and that everyone is rushing with them into something that is going to prove a failure. It was outrageous when the government was going to ask for a 15% increase, GVHC wanted to buy to keep rents low, but now they are asking better than 25% when you consider some repair is still to be done by tenants.

Actually I fail to see where the individual is buying anything other than the privilege of living here as you cannot remodel, rent etc. So why not just rent?

However if anyone can give me some better reason for buying I'd welcome it.

bership and that they should be reimbursed for expenses incurred in behalf of the corporation was submitted by Bernard J. Bordenet, chairman of the board's legal committee. This section was adopted by the members.

A motion adopting the by-laws as amended was passed, and the meeting adjourned.

Womans Club Sees Slides Votes on By-Law Revision

The Woman's Club of Greenbelt held its annual business meeting in the social room of the Center School on April 10. Committee chairmen and Mrs. Donald Romer, president, presented their reports. The president's message will be read at the County Federation Luncheon at Prince Georges County Club on May 1.

Revisions to the constitution and by-laws were voted on. During the voting tally, B. G. Fonda showed colored slides of vacation spots in America, as well as several slides taken in Greenbelt. Refreshments were served, under the direction of Mrs. Orville Slye. The meeting resumed and a committee was appointed to make up a book of customs.

The City Desk

By Charles T. McDonald
Departmental News

Public Safety Department: A special effort has been made during the past week to clean up the obsolete cars parked around the streets and in the courts. The response has been good, with one resident turning his car over to the Hyattsville Fire Department in their scrap collection campaign.

The Fire Department reports the acquisition of several new attachments for the fire trucks: (1) a special adjustable wrench to use where a fire hydrant stem might become stripped or damaged and could not be operated by the regular wrench, (2) a hose anchoring rope and hook, and (3) a hose line valve to provide for stopping a hose stream without returning to the fire plug.

The Maryland State Department of Forestry and Parks has just inspected our forest fire fighting equipment, and replaced several of our Indian fire fighting tanks and other tools. This service is free to fire companies which respond to neighborhood woods and grass fires.

Public Health: This is tick season and parents are cautioned to observe children more closely, especially in their hair. Ticks should be removed with a pair of tweezers and burned.

Library: New books on the shelves include some popular political titles such as "Eisenhower" by John Gunther; "A Foreign Policy for Americans," by Robert Taft, and "Mr. President," by William Hillman.

Recreation: The annual Easter egg hunt was staged last Monday and was well patronized. Enthusiasm is at a high peak around the ball field with several Boys Club teams and the six Little League teams all out for spring practice.

The Drop-Inn has been very active this week during the school holidays.

Public Works: The tree planting project was completed as of Thursday of last week, and an Arbor Day ceremony was held by all of the Scout organizations in Greenbelt, who have accepted special custodianship of the newly planted trees. Kindergarten: The Mayor and Council have been promised a written statement from Mr. Egan, Commissioner of PHA, defining their position on the elimination of the Greenbelt kindergarten.

Boy's Club Activities

By Leo

Stand by, folks! The Greenbelt Boy's Club BOXING SHOW is just around the corner. Coach Woody Page has planned a big boxing event for April 25 at the Center school. He is bringing in some of the best talent in the Metropolitan area, and this really should be called the "Meeting of the Champs." Most of the boys are either County Champs in their weight class or Junior Golden Gloves Champs of the Metropolitan area. This will be the last boxing show of this season.

The Basketball playoff is now in progress at the Armory at the University of Maryland. The Greenbelt Boy's Club has 3 teams in the playoffs: Midget, Intermediate and Junior. They will commence at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday, April 16. If possible go down and see the boys. Three games will be played each evening. There should be some very good games and we are pulling for the teams to come out with a County Championship.

Baseball practice is going strong now for the Midgets and Juniors. The Orioles are working out every day at 1 p.m. at Braden Field. All fellows 16 years old or under as of the first of the year, come on down and have a go at it. Same thing for the Midgets on Sunday at 2:30 p.m., for those 13 or under as of the first of the year. The Intermediate team has not started practice as yet but should be going soon. See you next week.

Questions And Answers On Housing

Several questions were raised at the GVHC membership meeting Monday. The answers given at the meeting are printed below and have been reviewed by President Mike Salzman.

Question. If a resident does not make a deposit by April 30, can his house be purchased by someone else?

Answer. Yes. For first priority for your own unit, deposit $100 (or $111 if a non-member) by the end of April. After April 30, if GVHC qualifies to purchase Greenbelt, the tenant who does not make a deposit is on an equal basis with non-residents if he then decides to buy. (The contract with PHA gives the present tenant who does not participate in GVHC one year's tenure on his present unit, rent to be set by GVHC in accordance with applicable rent control regulations, and paid to GVHC.)

Question. If a member does not make his $100 deposit by April 30, what are his rights in GVHC?

Answer. He loses his membership when GVHC signs a contract to purchase Greenbelt.

Question. If a member wants to buy a unit other than his own, what does he do?

Answer. (1) He pays in his $100 deposit.
(2) He signs the priority book in the GVHC office, 40-A Crescent.

(3) After April 30, he may select another unit (not contracted for by the present tenant) according to his priority, and within sixty days after GVHC signs the contract to purchase, he makes the down payment on the unit of his choice.

(4) He pays rent to GVHC on the house he continues to occupy. (Salzman says that the Board has not voted formally on this.)

(5) When he takes possession of the selected unit, he pays monthly charges for that house.

Question. If GVHC does not qualify to purchase, won't rentals here be lower than GVHC's schedule of monthly charges?

Answer. Not likely, according to Salzman. Present rent control regulations would permit PHA to charge as much—and a profit-making purchaser to charge more.

Question. What is the member's responsibility for maintenance and repairs?

Answer. The member takes care of interior decoration of unit, including replacement of shades, curtain rods and screens. Maintenance of refrigerators and ranges is part of the corporation's responsibility.

A holiday dance will take place at the Drop Inn Wednesday night, April 16, for all members. Bill Baxter and his orchestra will play and entertain for the entire evening. The dance will be held from 7:30 to 11 p.m.

The Easter Dance held Saturday, April 12, was enjoyed by all. The Drop Inn was cleaned and decorated nicely by Judy Kasko, who was in charge; Paul Reamy, Sandy Reamy, Ronnie Brooks, Robert Beckham, Pat Arrington, and Ellen Crawford. Thanks to Mrs. Kennedy for the time she spent at the Drop Inn patching up the couches for the dance.

The Drop Inn has been open every night during the Easter holiday for all members from 7:30 to 11 p.m.

The ping-pong tournament is drawing to an end. The following boys and girls are fighting for the championship: For mixed doubles, Roehling and Lewis, Reniere and Zoellner, and Kellaheer and Slaughter. For senior boys, B. Moore, M. Littleton and C. Roehling. For junior boys, Bob Nance and John Lewis. The junior girls' champion is Ellen Crawford.

Members are now planning their hayride during the month of May. There will be a junior hayride on May 9 and a senior hayride on May 16. All members must have permission slips from their parents in to me by the first of May. We must have from ten to fifteen parents to go with us. Any parent who would like to go along to help chaperon, please notify me as soon as possible. If we do not have at least ten parents, the members cannot go on their hayrides.

High schools are full of knowledge. The freshman brings a little in and the seniors take none away, and knowledge accumulates.

Northwestern has a total of 1,590 students: 603 Sophomores, 558 Juniors, and 429 Seniors.
